

The Fifty-Seven Daos of the Tenno: A Cultivation Codex

Each Warframe has been assigned a cultivation art rooted in their canonical lore, ability mechanics, and mythological origins. Frames sharing thematic kinship are grouped under broader Schools (宗 / 殿 / 宫), mirroring how wuxia/manhua factions cluster adjacent disciplines. Colors are chosen from the Prime/default palette and reinforced by cultivation symbolism.

I. The Crimson Sanguinary School (血殿 — frames whose power flows through blood, sacrifice, and rage)

Frame	Build Title	Cultivation Art	Hex	Color Name	Lore Justification
Garuda Prime	Blood Angel	Crimson Maiden Dao of the Severing Heart (赤姬断心道)	 #A8002A	Sanguine Crimson	Her Dread Mirror tears living hearts into shields; Bloodletting cuts her own veins to fuel Energy. Cross-school synthesis

Five frames bridge schools and deserve note: Excalibur Umbra sits between the Heavenly Mandate (samurai/sword-saint) and the Necropolis (filicide curse); Harrow straddles Hallowed Path and Sanguinary; Sevagoth lives at the Necropolis-Tidal seam (ghost-ship reaper); Caliban uniquely holds dual-citizenship in Cosmic and Ironclad (his Sentient adaptive armor makes him a metallurgist of incoming damage); and Uriel is canonically a devil but mechanically engineered (summoner-with-cooldown-style management), bridging Engineering Bureau and an inverted Hallowed Path.

The two Chinese-myth transplants — Nezha and Wukong — form the spine of the Heavenly Mandate, exactly as in Journey to the West, where they fight, lose to each other, and become brothers. The Sanguinary trio (Garuda, Valkyr, Kullervo) all literally cultivate from spilled blood, but each represents a different vector: ritual sacrifice, transmuted suffering, and atonement-through-slaughter respectively. Fandom

The richest color contrasts emerge in the Storm Heaven Convocation, where natural lightning (Volt's voltaic gold) and artificial lightning (Gyre's tesla violet) intentionally split — and the Plague Garden, where every shade of toxin cascades from chartreuse (Saryn) through cordyceps maroon (Nidus) to obsidian-silk (Oraxia) and atomic yellow (Qorvex), each a different stage of decay.

Together these fifty-seven daos form a complete cultivation cosmology: from the bloodiest pit to the highest seraphic choir, from the fastest battery-pulse to the slowest stone-monument, and from the most mortal pharaoh to the most immortal monkey-king.
